

HERBERT LANDS MERCHANTS' AND CITIZENS' RACE BY LENGTH

Keynote Forces the Mudder Out at the Finish.

ACEFUL WINS FOR MADDEN

Two-Year-Old, Played for a Good Thing Many Times, Wins.

CARBUNCLE A NOSE IN FRONT

Old Benning Campaigner Gets to the Wire Just Ahead of Hutton—Claim of Foul Made But Not Allowed—Gloriosa Wins Again.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 19.—The heavy rains of this morning made the track at the Springs heavy for racing today, still the sport was good, as the track dried out well toward the end.

The entry list in the different events was heavy, but scratches were numerous and the card suffered.

The Merchants and Citizens' Handicap was the stake event of the day, and the promising field dwindled down to five starters.

Owing to his fondness for mud Herbert ruled favorite, and he turned out the winner.

Whiskey King got the best of a bad start and led for three furlongs, where Herbert went to the front and at once opened up a gap. In the stretch Keynote closed with a rush, and Smith was forced to ride Herbert out to win by a length. The Western crack, Articulate, Odium up, received heavy backing, but he was not in the money.

Kilogram by a Neck.

Kilogram ruled favorite for the first event. He took the lead after the first quarter, and in a hard drive got home a neck before Bar Le Duc. This made it his third straight victory here.

Eleven two-year-olds took part in the second, and John Madden's Aceful, backed from 2 to 1 to 5 to 1, led all the way and galloped home five lengths before Nine Spot, a 4 to 1 chance.

John A. Drake's recent purchase, Savable, by Salvator-Strathmore, purchased from Pat Dunne for a big price, made his first appearance in the East in this event, and was heavily played, but he could not finish in the money. Subdue, another highly-bred and much-touted Western youngster, also started for the first time, but she, too, was unable to get home in the first three.

A Nose Finish.

Horses that had not won at the meeting ran in the third race and Lady Radnor was backed from 4 to 1 to 11 to 1. Brandybush, however, led all the way and beat her out by a nose.

For the fifth event, ten two-year-olds contended with W. R. Condon, backed from 2 to 1 to 5 to 1. The choice, Gloriosa, led all the way and beat him out by a neck.

Zoroaster ruled favorite in the last, but he was crowded out and almost knocked down in the backstretch. Himself led to the stretch, where Carbuncle and Hutton went to the front, Carbuncle winning by a nose. A claim of foul was made but not allowed.

TALENT FARES BADLY.

Only One First Choice Good Enough to Win at Hawthorne.

CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 19.—The talent fared badly today at Hawthorne, only one favorite winning, the other five races going to outsiders or second choices in the betting. The card was rather a poor one, and considering the fast track the time for each of the events was very slow.

The best race of the day was the second on the card, a condition race for three-year-olds and upward, at a mile. It was won by S. C. Hildreth's good colt, Lucien Appleby, at 4 to 1, he beating the even money favorite, Wain-e-Molien.

In view of the recent grand races of Lucien Appleby the price against him was certainly liberal. The handicap for four-year-olds and upward was won cleverly by John McGurk, who beat a good field. Betting was spirited and the contests close and interesting.

The following are the summaries:
First race—Two-year-olds; five and one-half furlongs. Lady Jocelyn (Winkfield), 3 to 2, won; Airlight (Knight), 7 to 1, second; Adios (Coburn), 8 to 1, third. Time, 1:59 1-5.

Second race—Three-year-olds and upward; one mile. Lucien Appleby (Buchanan), 4 to 1, won; Wain-e-Molien (Birkenruth), even, second; Bragg (Ransche), 4 to 1, third. Time, 1:53 1-5.

Third race—Selling; three-year-olds; seven furlongs. Judicious (Winstett), 19 to 1, won; Martin Bell (Hegerson), 5 to 1, second; Emulation (Winkfield), 3 to 1, third. Time, 1:52 1-5.

Fourth race—Handicap; four-year-olds and upward; one and one-eighth miles. John McGurk (J. Walsh), 5 to 2, won; Scarlet Lily (Hegerson), 4 to 1, second; Wadanta (Blake), 5 to 2, third. Time, 1:54 1-5.

Fifth race—Three-year-olds and upward; seven furlongs. Silurian (Winkfield), 19 to 1, won; Rolling Boer (Buchanan), 4 to 1, second; Headwater (Knight), 4 to 1, third. Time, 1:59 1-5.

Sixth race—Selling; three-year-olds and upward; one and one-quarter miles. Little Elkin (Robbins), 3 to 1, won; Edith Q. (Donnelly), 25 to 1, second; Kestevenburg (Hegerson), 2 to 1, third. Time, 2:09 1-5.

FEARFUL'S STAKE RACE.

Second Choice Captures the Bratton Steeplechase at Kinloch Park.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 19.—A fair card of six races was run off at Kinloch Park this afternoon, of which but two races went to the favorites. The feature of the program was the fourth race—the Bratton Steeplechase, at one and one-half miles, named in honor of J. E. Bratton, one of the owners of the track. G. Boyd was the choice of the talent for this event, going to the post at 2 to 1. The best he could do, however, was to finish second, as Fearful, the second choice, won handily.

Federalist, well known to Benning patrons, found a spot to his liking in the last race of the day, and, cleverly ridden by Scully, won easily. His backers had no reason to find fault with the price, as he got as good as 10 to 15 to 1 for their money. The summaries:

St. Louis Selections.

First race—Laureate, Kilmanachero, Brown Vail, Hopedfield, one of the classic events. King Edward, then Prince of Wales, Diamond Jubilee was the popular favorite, but Disguise II beat him easily, winning by two lengths.

Disguise went wrong after the race, which was probably not to be expected. Mr. Keene's intention for a long time to bring him to this country and place him in his stud.

Disguise II, in the Jockey Club Stakes, was at 100 to 40, and was ridden by Mornington Cannon. Cannon had back holding his mount under a careful pull until turning into the straight when he came on and won easily.

The colt will be taken to Mr. Keene's farm and probably never be raced again. Tomino, his sire, called the "Black Wonder," was one of the best colts on the American turf. He won many races, and a handsome shaft stands over his grave on Mr. Keene's Kentucky stock farm.

The program of the first week of the Buffalo Racing Association is out and of considerable interest to many horsemen here. The Buffalo derby, run on the first day of the week, is for a guaranteed sum of $5,000, of which $2,000 is to the winner. This, with the other good purses offered, should attract a good class of horses to the meeting.

time had been asked to do it. Hayden, who is riding in good form, carried off the racing honors, winning with two of his mounts, St. Elizabeth and Immortelle.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

"Pat" Bradley's colored jockey Hezekiah Seaton, well known to local racegoers, ran away from the Virginian not long ago. Bradley sent tracers for the boy and Sunday he was located in St. Louis. He was sent back to Chicago.

Many persons who have seen the boy ride at Benning wish that he had made good his escape, at least until after the meeting at Washington is over.

It is said that John E. Madden has a line out for the crack jockey Lucien Appleby, who piloted Wyeth to victory in the American Derby, to ride for W. C. Whitney next year. The lad's father, S. C. Lyne, owner of Larchmont stud, denies any knowledge of Madden's application for the boy's services and says no negotiations for the same would be legal either in turf or common law until December 1, when his present contract with Millionaire John A. Drake expires.

Madden is credited with saying that he considers Lyne one of the best judges of race now actively in the saddle.

Endurance by Right, by Inspector B. Imp. Early Morn, by Silverton; owned by W. G. Whitney, arrived at Lexington, Ky., yesterday and will be at once retired to the stud at La Belle farm.

In the spring she will be bred to Hamburg, Mr. Whitney gave close to $37,000 for Endurance by Right last fall. During the winter she was taken with catarrhal fever at the multi-millionaire's training quarters at Westbrook, L. I., and never recovered sufficiently to face the starter's flag this season. Last year, however, she won close to $40,000, and in eighteen starts won sixteen races. She is regarded as one of the very greatest two-year-old fillies that ever raced in this country, and horsemen believe that a colt out of her and by Hamburg will be as valuable as any foal ever dropped in America.

Charley Ellison says he will start Skiffull once more at Saratoga and then send him to Sheepshead Bay to run in the Futurity. Speaking of risks, he said: "I had two boys engaged to ride Skiffull, but was beaten out of both and had to take what I could get. I was lucky to get Landry at the last moment."

James R. Keene's crack horse, Disguise II, arrived from England Monday on board the Minnetonka. There were 122 other horses on the boat. Mr. Keene himself left Liverpool on board the Lucania last Saturday.

Disguise II is a five-year-old colt by Domino, out of Bonnie Girl. He was taken abroad by Mr. Keene when a year old, and as a three-year-old, on September 27, 1899, won the Jockey Club Stakes at Newmarket, one of the classic events. King Edward, then Prince of Wales, Diamond Jubilee was the popular favorite, but Disguise II beat him easily, winning by two lengths.

Disguise went wrong after the race, which was probably not to be expected. Mr. Keene's intention for a long time to bring him to this country and place him in his stud.

Disguise II, in the Jockey Club Stakes, was at 100 to 40, and was ridden by Mornington Cannon. Cannon had back holding his mount under a careful pull until turning into the straight when he came on and won easily.

MANY PERILS CONFRONT RIDERS OF RACE HORSES

Jockeys Take Lives in Hands Every Time They Start.

Many Boys Suffering From Injuries Sustained in Races—Big Salaries Tempt Them.

The unusual number of accidents among jockeys on the eastern race courses this season has drawn more than passing attention to the perils that confront the lad in the saddle. One fact fixed firmly in the jockey's mind is that every time he rides out of the paddock, gate for a race he takes his life in his hands.

Last Spring Jockey Booker was killed in a race. He had the mount on Red Knight, and as the colt fell Booker was thrown directly in the path of the horses rushing along behind him. One of them kicked him in the temple and for ten days the boy lay unconscious in the hospital. Then he died.

Jockeys Martin, Oleg, and Shea are suffering from injuries sustained in recent races, and a host of other knights of the pignola can show scars and malformation as witnesses of the dangers of the race. The phenomenal success of lads unknown a year or two ago has led scores of urchins hardily in their steps to seek employment about the racing stables. Visions of $10,000 or $20,000 a year tend to drive the lads from their books and into the realm of whip and spur. Until this season their chances of getting a mount in a race were slim indeed. The new rule setting aside certain races for apprentice jockeys only has opened the way to brighter prospects, and hence the increase in the number of applicants for saddle honors.

Not So Easy After All.

But when a boy becomes a full fledged jockey, life is not so easy after all. True, it is that there is a salary of from $10,000 to $20,000 for a star, but he has to work for it just the same. In a word, the life of a jockey is one of extreme hardship, coupled always with a chance of being killed at any moment. The average jockey is a minor. His father or his mother or some near relative controls his habits and also handles his wages until he becomes of age. Then if he is not inclined to be wild he is "wise" and knows that a quiet, abstemious life is the best. Such a boy generally lives within his means and the track.

Down at Sheepshead Bay many of the best jockeys make their headquarters. They are up before sunrise, and most of them begin the day's work by exercising horses. In the gallops before dawn they are up in the saddle, and they know just when a good thing is ready to be cut loose. Then they go to breakfast, and have royal appetites, too.

As the sun glazes high in the sky it becomes time to look after the weight. If a boy has to reduce in order to make a certain figure he has several methods to employ. He can boil himself down in a Turkish bath or he can put on sweaters and work off his flesh either by riding a bicycle or by running on the road. If it seems to be a difficult task to keep to the necessary weight luncheon is passed by without so much as a look at the bill of fare. Then comes the bustle and bustle of the afternoon.
